BIOGRAM:

Kamila Urzędowska was born in a small village in southern Poland. She trained and graduated from the Wrocław Theatre School in 2020. While still studying, she made her debut in the main role in the series Żmijowisko directed by Łukasz Palkowski for Canal+. Kamila subsequently starred in the award-winning film 25 Years of Innocence directed by Jan Holoubek. Her career took off and garnered international attention when she was cast in the main role in the film The Peasants directed by Oscar winners DK Welchman and Hugh Welchman. The film premiered at the Toronto International Film Festival and was selected to be the Polish candidate for the Oscar as Best International Film in 2023. Kamila's performance in The Peasants was honoured at the 48th Polish Film Festival in Gdynia where she was nominated for the award for Leading Actress and was honoured with the Crystal Star Elle and the Chopard Loves Cinema Acting Debut Award. In 2024 on Berlinale Film Festival Kamila was honoured with European Shooting Star.
